The Black & White Opera Soirée is an annual concert benefit for the National Arts Centre Orchestra and Opera Lyra Ottawa, featuring some of the most glorious arias and duets of the opera repertoire. Accrueable and enriching, the evening is a tantalizing mix of fine food, high fashion, and some of the most beautiful music ever written. Some of the finest Canadian artists in a range of ten gifts and talents, mostly" are by the Washington Post Opera with "an all encompassing warmth and joy, including bound artistry with youthful enthusiasm." Canadian soprano Mezzo Brigitte Lefebvre is recognized as one of the most magnificent voices and robust personalities of the day. She is currently acclaimed by the international press as much for her innate association and radiant voice as for a powerfully charismatic stage presence far beyond her years. Garnet Shaw has been described as "...a vocalization, a pure beauty of voice and an act of perfect naturalness" by La Presse of Montreal and journals worldwide. Established as one of Canada's greatest classical artists and a regular favorite of the Canadian Opera Company, the breadth of her lyrical repertoire reaches into the heroic Italian roles so suited to her instrument. The Black & White Opera Soirée takes place on Sunday, February 17, 2007 at the National Arts Centre and Opera Lyra Ottawa. Since its inception in 1998, the Soirée has contributed more than $1.8 million to help foster Canada's next generation of talented musical artists through training, mentoring, and showcasing.

The Black & White Opera Soirée takes place on Sunday, February 17, 2007 at the National Arts Centre and Opera Lyra Ottawa.
