Welcome to the website of EPSA17!

EPSA17 took place at the University of Exeter \(UK\) on 6-9 September 2017.

The conference featured contributed papers and symposia covering all subfields of the philosophy of science and bring together a large number of philosophers of science from Europe and overseas. We also welcomed philosophically-minded scientists, e.g. as participants in a symposium. For more information, click the entries in the menu on the left hand side.
