Philosophical Writings

A Journal for Postgraduates and New Academics

Philosophical Writings is an international journal published in the Philosophy Department at the Durham University. We welcome submissions on any area so long as they are treated in an analytic style. Our remit is to provide a channel for the publication of original work by advanced postgraduates and new academics, though we also accept work by established academics.

We have an international editorial board and past guest articles have been written by: Jonathan Lowe, Christopher Norris, John Gaskin, Anthony Flew, Alan Thomas, David Oderberg and David Cooper. In publishing a wide variety of stimulating and original essays, the journal hopes to play a vital role in the growth and development of philosophical awareness in the next generation of philosophers.
