

College of Arts and Sciences

Department of Philosophy

Department of Philosophy

About Us

- Mission
- Faculty
- Staff

Undergraduate Programs

- B.A. in Philosophy
- Minor in Philosophy
- Minor in Applied Ethics
- Minor in Religious Studies

Course Information

- Philosophy
- Ethics
- Religious Studies

Advising

- AdvisorTrac
- Documents

Student Resources

- Resources
- Philosophy Club
- Religious Studies Resources

Events

- Schedule
- Arab Tour

Contact Us

Welcome

The IPFW Philosophy Department's major in philosophy is a traditional humanities and liberal-arts program covering the principal branches and divisions of philosophy with an emphasis on the history of the discipline. The philosophy major is great preparation for aspiring graduate students. Some students who pursue this major do so with the intention of becoming teachers of philosophy. The philosophy major also serves as a pre-professional program for the ministry, law, or health sciences.

Related Links

- Institute for Human Rights
- Religious Studies

/