

The Scientific Philosophy and Philosophy of Science (Part 2)

Victor, Kuligin and Galina, Kuligina and Maria, Korneva (2001) The Scientific Philosophy and Philosophy of Science (Part 2).

Full text available as:

Microsoft Word - Requires a viewer, such as Microsoft Word Viewer

Abstract

The main problem of epistemology has been considered. It is a problem of scientific true. It is shown that epistemology plays a criteria role for knowledge of true. The criteria of scientific true are considered. It is shown that a problem of struggle against dogmatism is now the main problem.

Keywords: epistemology, scientific true, criteria of true, structure of philosophy, theory of knowledge, methodology.

Subjects: General Issues: Causation

ID Code: 1116

Deposited By: Victor, kuligin

Deposited On: 03 April 2003