

4th African Accounting and Finance Association Conference: 3 – 4 September 2014

The African Accounting and Finance Association, in collaboration with The School for Organisation and Resource Management, Faculty of Military Science of Stellenbosch University is pleased to present the 4th African Accounting and Finance Conference (AAFA 2014) at the Lord Charles Hotel, Somerset West, Western Cape from 3 – 4 September 2014. Academic articles are welcome from academics and practitioners on a broad range of topics; e.g. auditing, ethics, financial management and corporate social responsibility.

Key dates:

- Deadline for submission of papers: 31 May 2014
- Notification about acceptance or rejection: 30 June 2014
- Deadline for registration of authors: 31 July 2014

The African Accounting and Finance Association aims to provide a platform for academics and practitioners to debate the role of accounting, finance, auditing, corporate governance and other related fields in Africa. The AAFA seeks to bring together academics, graduate students and practitioners from the continent and beyond to network with peers and establish business contacts while sharing information, experiences and challenges. Previous conferences have been hosted in Ghana (2011), Nigeria (2012) and Uganda (2013), attended by delegates across Africa and other parts of the world. The expected number of delegates from South Africa, Africa and other countries is 250 – 300.
