

The Chairman's Message

Welcome to the web-site of the Hong Kong Bar Association.

I am honoured to be its Chairman and will do my utmost to protect and preserve the Bar's objects: it may be worth remembering that this provides that "The objects for which the Bar Association is established are to consider all matters affecting the profession and the administration of justice and to take such action thereon as it deems proper".

Such matters are expressly stated to include amongst others, the maintenance of the honour and independence of the Bar and the defence of the Bar in its relations with the Judiciary and the Executive; the defence, maintenance, upholding and improvement, in Hong Kong, of the independence...
