A theory on David Hume's property rights

WU Zhiyan

(School of Philosophy, Wuhan University, Wuhan 430072, China)

Abstract: According to David Hume's parlance, the stability of possession, transference by consent, and performance are the elementary laws of property rights. The paper systematically expounds the theory on David Hume's property rights, and reveals its origin, developing and massive significance in the field of classical economics, political philosophy and law.
