Welcome to EAPS

The European Association for Population Studies (EAPS) is a unique, international and interdisciplinary forum for population studies with a special focus on Europe. EAPS is an independent scientific association of individual members and Affiliated Institutions. EAPS was founded in 1983. EAPS organizes the European Population Conference which takes place every two years, as well as many other activities.

EAPS has granted its auspices to several collaborative initiatives such as:

- Population Europe: the European Population Partnership
- European Journal of Population
- European Doctoral School of Demography \(EDSD\).

You can join EAPS as a member and take part in our activities at a special member rate.
