Welcome to the UAPS website

The Union for African Population Studies (UAPS) is a Pan-African non profit scientific organization. Established through the initiative of the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) by the Third General Conference of African Demographers, Statisticians and Planners held in Addis Ababa in March 1984, in order to promote the scientific study of population in Africa.

UAPS' Headquarters (Secretariat) is located in Accra, Ghana.
