Welcome!

The cultural achievements of Spain and Spanish America range from Poema de mio Cid, through Don Quixote and paintings by Velázquez and Goya, to the works of writers as famous as Federico García Lorca, Gabriel García Márquez, and Isabel Allende. The Sub-faculty of Spanish at Oxford combines the study of landmarks such as these in a flexible syllabus which covers all periods of Spanish literature and offers a wide range of student choice.

It also offers less widely available specialisms in the languages and literatures of Galicia and Catalonia, areas which complement core topics in Hispanic literature and the Spanish language. Comprising some fifteen postholders, the Sub-faculty is one of the largest teaching units of Hispanic studies in the U.K.
