MILAN, Florida (October 24, 2006)—The Inter American Press Association (IAPA) today expressed concern at what it called a reprisal and an act of discrimination against the Mexican, Amado Carrillo Fuentes, president of the National Press Organization (ONPE). The hemisphere-wide press organization had dealt at its recent annual meeting in Mexico City with the issue of the arbitrary placement of official advertising to reinforce the chairman of the IAPA's Committee on Freedom of the Press and Information, Gerardo Matranga, editor of the Guatemalan City, Guatemala, newspaper, El Poder.
