

Birmingham Royal Ballet

Change text size : a a a

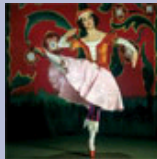

Performing next...

Birmingham Hippodrome: 3 - 5 July
Birmingham Royal Ballet presents an energetic evening of Stravinsky ballets: Petrushka, Le Baiser de la fée and Card Game. Click for more.

Coming soon...

The Lowry, Salford: 8-9 July
The Company opens a week of performances in Salford with three Stravinsky ballets, Petrushka, Card Game, and Le Baiser de la fée. Click here for links to booking details.

Sign in... or sign up

Click here to log in and edit your profile.
Not a member yet? Click here to sign up for regular e-bulletins.

Thank you to all of Birmingham Royal Ballet's current supporters. The work of the Company could not continue without your ongoing help and generosity. Current funders and sponsors

For details of BRB's current appeals, click on the button below.

Donate now

Bulletin board

- Christopher Barron adds to Desmond Kelly praise, 26/6/08
- David Bintley takes on Japanese role, 26/6/08
- Ambra Vallo on Giselle, 17/6/08
- London autumn dates on sale now, 16/6/08
- The career of Desmond Kelly, 14/6/08
- David Bintley on Desmond Kelly, 14/6/08
- The Fairy's Kiss, 13/6/08
- Individual Birmingham 2008-09 tickets on sale, 1/6/08
- The history of Card Game, 10/5/08
- David Bintley on increased fitness standards, 9/5/08

Behind the scenes: the shoe master

Click here to read an interview with Birmingham Royal Ballet's shoe supervisor Michael Clifford, in which he explains why the forthcoming one-act ballet Petrushka is even more work than Sleeping Beauty!

What do you think...

of Petrushka? This piece packs the stage with its vibrant, colourful crowd scenes. Have you seen it before and what did you think? click the button below to share your thoughts.

Discuss BRB