Research Interests:

My field is US History since 1607, especially the 20th century. Most of my research is in the area of cultural history. I have taught courses in recent U. S.; Native America; California and the West; and environmental history. I am currently working on two projects: a cultural history of mountaineering in western Europe and North America, and a history of modernism and mountaineering.

Representative Publications:

Frontiers of Historical Imagination: Narrating the European Conquest of Native America (Berkeley: University of California Press, 1997).

From History to Theory (2011, University of California Press)

Steep: A Cultural and Environmental History of Mountaineering (under contract, University of California Press)
