

Equivariant semi-topological K-homology and a theorem of Thomason

Jeremiah Heller, Jens Hornbostel

(Submitted on 4 Jun 2012)

We generalize several comparison results between algebraic, semi-topological and topological K-theories to the equivariant case with respect to a finite group. Moreover, we show that Walker's theorem comparing semi-topological and topological K-homology extends to singular varieties.

Comments: With an appendix by Paul Arne $\text{\O}st\v{v}\text{\ae}r$

Subjects: K-Theory and Homology (math.KT)

Cite as: arXiv:1206.0690 [math.KT]

(or arXiv:1206.0690v1 [math.KT] for this version)

Submission history

From: Jeremiah Heller [view email]

[v1] Mon, 4 Jun 2012 17:53:03 GMT (46kb)

Which authors of this paper are endorsers?

Download:

- PDF
- PostScript
- Other formats

Current browse context:

math.KT

< prev | next >

new | recent | 1206

Change to browse by:

math

References & Citations

- NASA ADS

Bookmark(what is this?)

