WELCOME TO THE ASBMB HOMEPAGE

The Society aims to advance Biochemistry and Molecular Biology in Australia, facilitating research and education, and interfacing with business and the community.

Please contact the Honorary Secretary Professor Paul Attwood, School of Biomedical & Chemical Sciences, University of Western Australia, Crawley WA 6009, secretary@asbmb.org.au, if you have any comments or suggestions about ASBMB.

The ASBMB website is intended to be a useful online resource for members and non-members alike:

- Find out more about the ASBMB and its activities.
- Keep up to date with the latest ASBMB news.
- Browse the online jobs/scholarships database in our employment section, and submit an online CV to our searchable CV database.
- Find out about the latest conferences, awards and fellowships.
