Second Circular

International Workshop On

Tethyan Orogenesis And Metallogeny In Asia

And Cooperation Among Institutions Of Higher Education

Sunday, 12 October - Tuesday, 16 October, 2014

Wuhan, China

This circular consists of five parts:

Part A. General Information;

Part B. Keynote Speakers;

Part C. Important Dates and Delay Notification;

Part D. Program Overview;

Part E. Post-conference excursions.

For the Hotel Registration Form, additional information and updates, please visit the IWTOMA website: <http://www.iwtoma.org/>

Part A. GENERAL INFORMATION

An International Workshop on Tethyan Orogenesis and Metallogeny in Asia and Cooperation among Institutions of Higher Education (IWTOMA) will be held on October 12 -16, 2014 at China University of Geosciences (CUG), Wuhan, China. The workshop is sponsored by International Education College (CUG), Faculty of Earth Sciences (CUG), the State Key Laboratory of Geological Processes and Mineral Resources (Wuhan), and the State Key Laboratory of Continental Tectonics and Dynamics (Beijing). The 2014 IWTOMA will be held in the Conference Center situated on the beautiful campus of CUG. The Center provides an attractive and congenial setting for extensive communication among participants, with meeting meals taken at the Zhengdan Hall near the Conference Center.

The main purpose of this circular is to issue the "call for extended abstracts" - to invite experts to attend and give presentations in this international conference. The circular includes some additional information, such as Invited Keynote Speakers, Publications, Program Overview, Extended Abstracts, Delay Notification and Field Trip Route. Additional details about the agenda will be forthcoming in the Third Circular. If you plan to attend the workshop and deliver a presentation, please complete the REGISTRATION AND REPLY FORM

(see the last two pages) and send it at your earliest convenience to iwtoma@cug.edu.cn.

Dual Conference Themes

1. Tethyan Orogenesis and Metallogeny in Asia

- (1) Magmatism and metallogeny in the Tethyan tectonic domain
- (2) The role of ophiolites in Tethyan orogenesis and metallogeny
- (3) Tethyan evolution, orogenesis and Asian accretion
- (4) Mineral resources in the Asian Tethyan tectonic domain
- (5) Tethyan tectonic domain and petroleum exploration

2. Cooperation among Institutions of Higher Education

Throughout the conference, presentations and discussions regarding Higher Education Cooperation will deal with the following key issues:

- (1) Models for interactive educational cooperation
- (2) Capacity building and Developing curricula
- (3) Quality guarantees in exchange program.
- (4) Higher education and scientific research cooperation (including scholarship issues)
- (5) Possibility of founding an international university consortium

Abstracts and Publications

Due to the summer vacation and suggestions by some scientists, the abstract deadline has been extended until 6 September 2014. Therefore, the organizing committee now continues to call for extended abstracts on late-breaking research results about Tethyan Orogenesis and Metallogeny in Asia and Models for Improving Cooperation among Earth Science Institutions.

All papers should include a list of contributors and their affiliations, title, keywords and a text of no more than 4000 words (3-4 A4 pages). Figures (in jpg format), short tables (in Word format) and key references are allowed. For manuscript template for conference proceedings, please visit the IWTOMA website: <http://www.iwtoma.org/>

We plan to publish selected, original, high-quality, peer-reviewed papers in an international journal after the workshop closes. The choice of journal will be made based on the quality of papers submitted.

Registration and Excursion Fees

All fees are in US Dollars. An 'early-bird' discount of $100 is available for registrations made before 31 August. The registration fee covers the icebreaker, the daily morning and afternoon tea and coffee, materials, meals during the meeting, welcome banquet, insurance and accommodation. An extra charge will be added for the Pre-Conference and Post-Conference excursions. The Pre-Conference fee includes a one-day tour fee, bus fee, ticket fee and lunch. The Post-Conference fee includes a three-day tour fee, bus fee, ticket fee, accommodation and meal fee during the meeting.

Category	Pre-conference	Registration Fee	Post-conference
	Excursion		excursion
Early Bird (Before Aug 31.)	$50	$350	$300
Standard Registration (After Aug. 31 or onsite)	$50	$450	$400
Student/Pensioner	$30	$250	$300

IWTOMA Travel Grant

The Organizing Committee will provide travel grants to outstanding young scientists, PhD students and a number of qualified low-economy delegates, who have submitted papers to the conference.

An IWTOMA travel grant may cover one or all of the following:

Registration fee

Pre- and post-Conference excursion fees

International travel expenses

Accommodation fee

The final number of awards and their amount will depend on available funding. For Application Procedures, please visit the IWTOMA website: <http://www.iwtoma.org/>

Please submit the grant application materials to the organizing committee by email at IWTOMA@cug.edu.cn no later than August 31, 2014.

Accompanying persons

The registration fee for accompanying person is $200 each, which includes the Pre-Conference excursion fee, the icebreaker, and the welcome banquet.

Getting to CUG

The university campus ( Address: Lumo Road No.388, Hongshan District, Wuchang Town, Wuhan City) can be reached from the Wuhan Tianhe international airport by taxi or shuttle bus (to Fujiapo Bus Terminal, and then take bus 59 or bus 401 to Lumo Road, China University of Geosciences).

Accommodation

The China University of Geosciences campus is the conference venue. Hotels near the conference site are recommended. Special rates and a limited number of rooms in the CUG Hotel will be reserved for conference participants. Please refer to the individual hotel links for detailed information and make your reservation early (Hotel links are listed below):

Part B. KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

The Organizing Committee has received enthusiastic responses after issuance of the first circular, not only from the top universities in Pakistan, Iran, Turkey, Thailand, Vietnam, Myanmar, Laos, Cambodia and other Asian countries, but also from some renowned geologists all over the world. Some of the keynote speakers for the Earth Science themes are:

Keynote Speaker	Affiliation	Subject
Prof. J. Aitchison	The University of Sydney, Australia	India-Asia collision
Dr. F. Daliran	Karlsruhe Institute of Technology, Germany	Epithermal gold-silver deposits in the Tethyan belt of Iran
Prof. Y. Dilek	Miami University, USA	Ophiolites and their origin
Prof. M. Naim Eqrar	Kabul University, Afghanistan	Water resource of Afghanistan and it's trans-boundary context
Prof. P.H. Leloup	Universite Lyon1, France	Time constraints on partial melting and deformation of the Himalayan Crystalline Sequence, Nyalam Tibet
Prof. R. Mason	China University of Geosciences, China	Subduction of oceanic ridges and ophiolite obduction
Dr. Myo Min	Shwebo University, Myanmar	Crustal assembly of Myanmar
Dr. H. Mirnejad	University of Tehran, Iran	Magmatic iron deposits in Iran
Prof. Kezhang Qin	Chinese Academy of Sciences, China	Ore deposits in Tibet, China
Prof. J. Pearce	Cardiff University, UK	Application of geochemical fingerprinting to mineral deposit classification and exploration
Prof. P.T. Robinson	Chinese Academy of Geological Sciences, China	New perspectives on ophiolite formation
Dr. Kriangkrai Trisarn	Suranaree University of Technology, Thailand	Petroleum potential assessment in Northeastern Thailand
Prof. Jingsui Yang	Chinese Academy of Geological Sciences, China	Diamonds and highly reduced minerals in ophiolitic mantle rocks and chromitites

Other keynote speakers will be selected from conference participants and listed in the Third Circular. All participants are encouraged to give a presentation at the meeting. All conference presentations will be in English.

Part C. IMPORTANT DATES AND DELAY NOTIFICATION

According to the First Circular, participants intending to present a paper at the workshop are required to submit an extended abstract by July 29, 2014. However, due to the summer vacation, a majority of experts and students suggested the deadline for abstract submission should be extended. After careful consideration, the organizing committee decided to extend the abstract submission deadline till September 6, 2014.

September 6, 2014

Abstracts deadline (extended abstracts)

October 11, 2014	Pre-conference excursion
October 12-13, 2014	Workshop
October 14-16, 2014	Post-conference field excursion

Part D. PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The 2014 IWTOMA program starts on October 11, 2014 and closes on October 16, 2014. The first 3 days will be spent in CUG, which include the Pre-Conference excursion, invited keynote speeches and oral presentations on Tethyan Orogenesis and Metallogeny in Asia and Cooperation among Institutions of Higher Education. Participants are invited to attend the following sessions.

Time	Activities	Place
Oct 11, 2014	Registration	CUG Hotel lobby
	Pre-Conference excursion	Wuhan City and Campus
Oct 12, 2014 (A.M.)	Opening Ceremony and Photo Session	Conference Center
	Keynote speeches
Oct 12, 2014 (P.M.)	Keynote speeches	To be decided
	Welcome banquet
Oct 13, 2014	Oral presentation for Earth Science, and Higher Education Forum	Conference Rooms
Oct 14-16, 2014	Post-Conference excursion	The Three Gorges
Oct 16, 2014 (P.M.)	Return to Wuhan City at ca 17:00	The Three Gorges-Wuhan

Part E. POST-CONFERENCE EXCURSION

Plans are in progress for a 3-day, post-conference field excursion to the Three Gorges of Yangtze River, limited to 30 participants. The itinerary will take the group from the Wangjiawan North section to the Huanghuachang section (one night at Yichang city), then across western Hubei to the Daxiakou section in Daxiakou County (one night at Zigui city). The third day will focus on the Three Gorges area of the Yangtze River, and the group will be able to visit the Three Gorges. In this field trip, the group will focus on the Cryogenian-Ediacaran sections, two Global Stratotype Sections and Point (GSSP) for the Early-Middle Ordovician and the Hirnantian (Late Ordovician), together with a Permian-Triassic deep shelf facies section (Daxiakou section). Prof. Qinglai Feng (China) and Prof. Roger Mason (England) will be the trip leaders. More detailed information regarding the trip will be available in the guidebook now being prepared.

Stop 1: The Wangjiawan North section - the GSSP of Hirnantian

Stop 2: The Huanghuachang section—the GSSP of Dapingian

Stop 3: The Daxiakou section in Daxiakou County, western Hubei

Stop 4: Cryogenian-Ediacaran stratigraphy of the Yangtze Gorges area

Stop 5: Neoproterozoic granitoid rocks in the Three Gorges area.
