

- Issues Index
- Register Now
- Manage Profile
- Site Map
- Contact Us
- Log Out

NPRA speaks for the petrochemical and refining industries on issues important to their business. We seek to inform policymakers and the public how our industries help improve their lives, strengthen the economy, protect the environment and promote national security.

Spotlight
What American Consumers Are Saying...: “ It appears, from this sample of opinion from American consumers, that there is growing discontent with the new energy policies emerging from Congress, and a desperate need for a return to a realistic approach to reduce costs by increasing domestic supplies of fuels through a broad, diverse portfolio without federal mandates and punitive taxes to pay for them.” Fact Sheet PDF Version	Unique Study Shows Many Hurdles for Compliance with Lieberman-Warner Climate Bill: “ The results from NERA show that compliance with the bill would require significant increases in nuclear and wind power, significantly more liquefied natural gas, the realization of carbon capture and sequestration, and significant increases in ethanol use that would not be sustainable.”	Take Action!: Tell your Senators to Vote "NO" on the Lieberman-Warner Climate Security Act Write Congress to Oppose Government Price Fixing Through So-Called "Price Gouging" Legislation Oppose Tax Hikes on American Energy NPRA Welcomes its New Members Click here to view the list of new NPRA members. For information on membership, please view our membership page.	Registration Open for the Following Meetings: Cat Cracker Seminar NPRA Call for Papers &amp; Questions: Plant Automation and Decision Support Environmental Conference Q&amp;A Panel Nomination