The 2nd International Conference on Advanced Design and Manufacturing (ADM 2009) will take place in Harbin, China, 24-26 September 2009. The conference will follow the success of its previous conference held in China in 2006. The forthcoming ADM2009 is anticipated to achieve a higher quality and attract more participants.

The conference proceedings will be published in the periodical "Key Engineering Materials" (available in full text on the web via www.scientific.net one of the leading and largest online databases in its field), with a separate book (with ISBN), CD (with ISBN) and online edition for the conference participants. The periodical is indexed by EI.
