Annual report 2012: keeping Europe's workers safe, now and in the future

In its 2012 annual report EU-OSHA shows how it has continued to work hard to promote the importance of good occupational safety and health, for businesses of all sizes. Highlights of the year include the completion of the Foresight project on 'green' jobs, the launch of the new Healthy Workplaces Campaign 'Working together for risk prevention' and the European Year for Active Ageing and Solidarity between Generations.
