

Free newsletter sign up now

SEARCH:

Go

Advanced Search

Subscribe online
& save £20

HOME

NEWS

FEATURES

REVIEWS

SERVICE DIRECTORY

L&M CONFERENCE

REHAB CONFERENCE

CLINICAL NEGLIGENCE

EXPERT WITNESS

FORENSICS

FUNDING/INSURANCE

IT

MEDIATION

PERSONAL INJURY

REGULATION

REHABILITATION

ABOUT

CONTACT

WRITE FOR US

ADVERTISE HERE

MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTION

PRINT THIS PAGE

LATEST MEDICO-LEGAL ARTICLES

Lawyers join forces against suspended surgeon

20th, May 2008

Solicitors representing 30 patients claiming negligent treatment from a suspended breast surgeon are working together for quicker case handling. More >>>

Pre-eclampsia tests not accurate enough

20th, May 2008

Tests for pre-eclampsia, a serious condition that causes high blood pressure in pregnancy, are not accurate enough, says study. More >>>

Women's whiplash-risk three times men's

19th, May 2008

Women are more at risk of whiplash in a rear shunt because of their seating position, according to a study. More >>>

Judges' new designer look

16th, May 2008

Judges will be shedding their wigs and donning designer robes. More >>>

Mesothelioma widow compensated seven years later

16th, May 2008

A widow received a £218,000 payout for her husband's death after a seven year wait. More >>>

Most Recent Articles

1. Lawyers join forces against suspended surgeon
2. Pre-eclampsia tests not accurate enough
3. Women's whiplash-risk three times men's

Most Popular Articles

1. Rising to the occasion
2. Law firm overturns 27-year-old House of Lords decision
3. Mobile Doctors expecting Zenith to challenge Woollard appeal

Send this page to a colleague

SUBSCRIBE TO +
L&M MAGAZINE