Personal Motto: A person who loves his work lives with a vision.

Professor, experienced in Global management, Supply chain, Sales & Marketing and sound understanding China market, international business localization, I am driven by my keen interest in business development. Wishing to apply and further develop my knowledge and skills to my students.

Educational Background:

Educated in the United States: MBA and PhD of management; M.S. in Computer Science.

I currently hold two international professional certificates:

1. Certified Sales Executive
2. Certified Marketing Executive awarded by Sales and Marketing Executive International in the USA

Personality:

My friends and colleagues would describe me as being patient, responsible, steady, zealous, strong willed and having excellent interpersonal skills.

One of my weaknesses is that I sometimes do not like it when people do not take me seriously.
