

You are here: Home » Our services » Hospice information service

In this section

- Hospice information service
- E-newsletters
- UK hospice and palliative care services
- International palliative care services
- Hospice information bulletin
- Contact us
- Getting help outside of office hours

Did you know...
More than 100,000 people volunteer in hospices across the UK

Hospice information service

Welcome to the Hospice information service section of the Help the Hospices website. This website replaces the Hospice Information website. From this section you can access information about UK hospice care and how to find a hospice along with information about international palliative care and overseas services.

Our Hospice information service is for anyone with a professional or personal interest in UK and international hospice and palliative care.

The service is provided in partnership with St Christopher's Hospice.

What we do

We provide a range of services including:

- a personal enquiry service
- an international linking service
- eChoices – an online directory of courses and conferences
- presentations and displays
- informal networking and information sharing
- an online job advertising service.

We also produce publications and newsletters including:

- a UK hospice and palliative care services directory
- international palliative care directories
- a quarterly magazine, Hospice Information Bulletin
- the weekly newsletter Hospice UK Online
- the bimonthly newsletter Worldwide Hospice and Palliative Care Online.

Further information

Please contact us for more information about our services and how we can help you.

Acknowledgement

We are grateful to Macmillan Cancer Support for support for this service.

