

Knowledge

WHAT WE KNOW

- Global CVD
- Healthy Behaviors
- Risk Factors
- Issues
- Research Review
- Resources

Action

WHAT WE CAN DO

- Clinical Practice
- Community Programs
- Advocacy & Policy

Global Community

WORKING TOGETHER

- Global Dialogue
- CVD Calendar

Bernard Lown, MD

ProCor Founder.
Research Pioneer.
Nobel Laureate.

Learn more >

Cardiovascular disease--the world's leading cause of death--takes its greatest toll in developing countries. We can reduce this by 80%.

Relief effort for Haitians with diabetes

The International Diabetes Foundation's Haiti Diabetes Trust Fund is assisting people with diabetes during the post-earthquake emergency. More than 300,000 Haitians have diabetes...

Global Research Update

view all >

Learning from Mexico on trans fatty acids

The authors of the study note that even though the public health context seemed to be appropriate to promote TFA policy, the issue is not on the political ...

Smoker sensitivity to tobacco displays

As the tobacco industry faces greater advertising restrictions worldwide, they have shifted their marketing strategy toward effective point-of-sale ...

Prevention News

view all >

US: Low-fat/fat-free milk in schools

After New York City public schools removed whole milk from all cafeterias and switched from low-fat to fat-free chocolate milk, milk-drinking students ...

Switzerland: 22% AMI decrease after smoking ban

Incidence of acute myocardial infarctions (AMIs) declined by 22% in the twelve months following Implementation public smoking ban in March 2008 in ...

Join the Global Dialogue

Free email news and discussion

Low Cardiovascular Research Foundation

Current Projects

Ashanti-ProCor Project
2009 recipient - Be-Alive With Your Heart, Uganda
Louise Lown Heart Hero Award

Notice Board

Relief effort for Haitians with diabetes

The International Diabetes Foundation's Haiti Diabetes Trust Fund has been established to assist people with diabetes during the post-earthquake emergency and will support rebuilding services for the more than 300,000 people with diabetes in Haiti...

Call for applications: 2010 Louise Lown Heart Hero Award

ProCor's annual award recognizing innovative approaches to promoting cardiovascular health.
Deadline: 30 April 2010.
Criteria and application...

Call for papers: Pacific Islander Health

Hawaii Medical Journal will publish a special thematic issue on Pacific Islander Health.
Deadline for papers: 15 March 2010...

view all >

