GENERAL INFORMATION

PROBABILITY AND MATHEMATICAL STATISTICS

is published by the Kazimierz Urbanik Center for Probability and Mathematical Statistics, and is sponsored jointly by Wrocław University and Wrocław University of Technology. The purpose of the journal is to publish original contributions to the theory of probability and mathematical statistics.

Probability and Mathematical Statistics was founded in 1980 and its establishment was a result of the initiative of the Wrocław probability community led by Kazimierz Urbanik and Czesław Ryll-Nardzewski, and statistics community represented by Witold Klonecki. They served as Editors of the journal during the first twenty-five years of its existence, with Urbanik shouldering the role of the Editor-in-Chief. Beginning with 2007, PMS became an affiliated journal of the Institute of Mathematical Statistics (IMS), San Francisco, CA.

All papers are refereed. Decisions on acceptance of papers are made by the Editorial Board. Manuscripts should be e-mailed as pdf or ps files to:

`pms@math.uni.wroc.pl`

following instructions provided in this webpage. All other correspondence concerning PMS should also be emailed to the above email address.
