Legal Publications and Briefs:

Romagoza et al. v. Generals Garcia and Vides Casanova. Expert Witness Legal Brief and Expert Testimony on equitable tolling of the statute of limitations, holding that the statute of limitation should not begin to toll at least until the signing of the peace agreements in 1992 or until other signs of regime change. No. 02-14427, Docket NO. 99-08364 When the Court of Appeals reversed its former ruling and accepted this date for equitable tolling, this was called by New York Times and Miami Herald an "unprecedented reversal" of the 11th Circuit Court of Appeals and a major human rights ruling, January 2006.

Chavez et al. v. Colonel Carranza. Expert Witness Legal Brief and Testimony for civil action, holding that former Vice Minister of Defense and Director General of the Treasury Police is responsible for gross and systematic violations of human rights, including murder and torture, committed between 1979-1983. First jury finding of "crimes against humanity" in a command responsibility trial in the U.S., Memphis, Tennessee, November 2005.

Doe v. Saravia. Expert Witness Legal Brief and Testimony for civil action, holding that Captain Saravia and others, including top leaders of El Salvador, conspired to murder Archbishop Oscar Arnulfo Romero of El Salvador. One of few findings of “crimes against humanity” in U.S., Fresno, California, 2004.

Romagoza et al. v. Generals Garcia and Vides Casanova. Expert Witness Legal Brief and Testimony for civil action 99-8364, holding that former ministers of defense of El Salvador are responsible for gross and systematic violations of human rights committed between 1979-1988. First jury trial in U.S. finding liability of commanders for torture under the doctrine of command responsibility, West Palm Beach, 2002. Upheld by 11th Circuit Court of Appeals, January 2006

Colombia: The Impact of Oil Development on the U’wa People., Expert Witness Legal Brief submitted to the Consejo del Estado, Bogota, Colombia, August 2000 in the U’wa People versus Occidental Petroleum, holding that oil exploration in U’wa territories is linked to the rise of environmental damage, human rights abuses, and corruption. 80 pages.
