Organic

2nd. Symposium on Medicinal Chemistry for World Health

18 - 21 June 2017, Madrid, Spain

Introduction

The meeting will take place within the Tres Cantos laboratories of GSK, near Madrid, Spain. Bringing together leading exponents for an exciting spread of themed sessions, the meeting will appeal to anyone with an interest in drug discovery and medicinal chemistry. With great opportunities for collaborative academic-industrial partnerships and open innovation discovery programmes, researchers from both sectors will benefit from the networking opportunities that the meeting will also offer.
