You work for a school, the staff members seem to have lost interest and confidence in their work in recent years, a few of them even quit their jobs and jump to other profession. The leadership of the school asked you to conduct an anonymous survey among the staff to suggest ideas to motivate them and improve morale (鼓舞士气). Please write a proposal for the leadership in about 1000 words which includes:

- A brief description of the problem;
- Findings of the survey and your analysis
- Your recommendations

Dear Mr. Smith,

I am one of staff members ⁱⁿ this school. As a member of school, I have responsibility to make our school developed better and better. In that case, I'd like to share ~~some~~ ^{the} problem that I have realized ^{with} you. Then, show you the findings of the survey ^(or discovered) and my analysis. Last, ~~my~~ ^{my} recommendations will be demonstrated. In recent years, the staff members in our school seem to have lost interest and confidence in their work and a few of them even quit their jobs and jump to other profession. This is ~~a very~~ indeed a big problem exist ^{among} the staff members. What's more, this kind of problem will certainly do harm to the development
